To the PUBLIC, New-York, Oct. 16, 1766.

IT is now upwards of six Years that I have published a weekly News Paper, under the Title of the New-York Gazette or Weekly Post-Boy, which I have the Pleasure to think has been generally acceptable, and publicly useful: But having now Occasion to alter the Title of my Paper, I hope for the same favourable Reception of the NEW-YORK JOURNAL or GENERAL ADVERTISER, that my Paper met with under the former Title; since it will be conducted with the same Spirit, and to the same Ends,—the Suppression of Evil, and the Promotion of public and private Happiness. The Reasons of altering my Title are these, 1st, for the Sake of Distinction, as I am inform'd Mr. PARKER intends to publish a Paper under the former Title; and 2d, because, as he formerly publish'd a Paper under that Title, I would not avail myself of any Advantages from a Name originally assumed by him. The Number, for the Sake of more easily settling with my Customers, will run regularly on from my last Week's Paper. Perhaps, when Opportunity permits, I shall procure a Cut for the Head of my Paper, till which Time, it will be published in its present Form.

JOHN HOLT.

From the GENERAL EVENING POST.

To the PRINTER, &c.

S I R,

MY favourite reading, ever since I could read, has been in news-papers, and to them I am indebted for all my knowledge, and the greatest part of my amusement. This declaration may, at first sight, appear somewhat extraordinary; but I dare say it would cease to be so, if most of the fine gentlemen about town would be as ingenuous as myself: they too would freely confess, that the figure they make in company is entirely owing to the occurrences of the day, with occasional essays and literary articles in the public papers.

I don't intend, Sir, to pay you any extravagant complements at the expence of your brethren; though I very much approve the general plan and conduct of your paper, and am often pleased to see in it some smart things shine through the dark cloud of politicks, in which all our news-papers have long been enveloped.

For several months past, I have resided in the country with a very agreeable family, about forty miles from London. The environs were most delightful, and we had plenty of shooting, fishing, walking, and riding. But as the weather was frequently such as obliged us to keep within doors, we then endeavoured to amuse ourselves with cards and news-papers. Cards, to those who love play, are a vast fund of amusement. Every time the spots and pictures are shuffled, they afford fresh entertainment; but this is by no means the case with regard to news-papers; for when you have once perused the four pages of unconnected occurrences, and miscellaneous advertisements, the abrupt transitions from article to article, without the smallest connection between one paragraph and another, overload and confuse the memory so much, that, when you are questioned, you can never give a tolerable account of what you have been reading. Hence it is, that one so often sees people peruse two or three news-papers, and throw them down, one after another, with the constant complaint of, not a syllable of news—nothing at all in the papers, to the great discredit of those vehicles of intelligence, and the great detriment of you, Sir, and the rest of your brethren. Now this is extremely unjust; for the fault (as already hinted) is not in the news-papers, but in the readers having taken too copious a dose, consisting of an olio, or mixt composition of politics, religion, picking of pockets, puffs, casualties, deaths, marriages, bankruptcies, preferments, resignations, executions, lottery tickets, India bonds, Scotch pebbles, Canada bills, French chicken gloves, Auctioneers, and Quack Doctors. What a curious jumble is this, and what wonder is it, that four folio pages of it should prove too potent a dose for the memory of most readers?

But in pursuing this matter, I had almost lost sight of the point I had originally in view, when I began this Letter; which was to shew, that news-papers, as well as Cards, were capable of affording a Variety of Entertainment. At present I shall only mention one improvement in reading the Papers, which we practised in the country with great success; and that was, after we had read the General Evening-Post in the old trite vulgar way, i. e. each column by itself downwards, we next read two columns together onwards, as if the lines had been continued thro' both columns; and by this new method found much more entertainment than in the common way of reading, with a greater variety of articles curiously blended, or strikingly contrasted. In short, blind Chance brought about the strangest connections, and frequently coupled persons and things the most heterogeneous; things so opposite in their nature and qualities, that no man alive would ever have thought of joining them together.

As I always carry a pencil in my pocket, I used to set down those that were most remarkable; and now send you a collection of them, to be inserted in your Paper; which I hope you will receive with your usual candour and indulgence, as it tends to promote the practice of reading, and to enlarge the circle of innocent amusement.

I am, Sir, your humble servant,

L O N D O N,

Nov. 25. A letter from Paris mentions; that Col. Ligonier was soon to set out for Marseilles, in order to embark for the Island of Corsica.

A letter from Amsterdam, dated Nov. 14, says, "The last advices from Russia gives us too much reason to fear that the French have succeeded at that court in obtaining a contract for all sorts of naval stores, and all the gunpowder and saltpetre that they can spare, which causes much speculation here; not only as it may hurt us considerably in our navigation as carriers, but also in several other very beneficial branches of trade, for we are informed that the Russian vessels are to transport the stores to France; and most of our gunpowder mills must stand still, since we cannot expect to receive any considerable supply of saltpetre from either Poland, Prussia, or the Empress Queen's dominions; and our supply from the Indies is not only scanty, but on the first trouble there, may be entirely cut off; and the quantity we make in these provinces is by far too inconsiderable to enable us to continue the supplying Africa, Surinam, Eustatia, &c. &c. with gunpowder."

On Tuesday, the 11th instant, a match for 800 guineas was run for, over Peterborough course, by Edward Wilkes, Esq's chestnut gelding, and Mr. Wenley's bay gelding, carrying twenty stone each, one ten mile heat, which was won by the latter. The heat was run in thirty minutes. [What Cruelty!]

Nov. 27. We hear that his Serene Highness the Hereditary Prince of Brunswick, has, during his present travels, furnished himself with accurate plans of all the field battles, frontier towns, and fortifications in the neighbourhood of every place, through which he passed.

We are informed, that the Lieutenant, who ran away with Miss B— (the greatest fortune, perhaps, of any private subject in Europe) is her own near relation, and that she has taken care to clope with him in a manner that evades all legal prosecutions.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman of the English factory at Lisbon, to his correspondent in London, dated November 3.

—"There is a most astonishing change here within a short time, with respect to religious matters: The Pope has lost all his influence, and the Inquisition dare not exert theirs. A book has been lately published here, wherein it is plainly set forth, that whenever the Pope deviates from his hierarchical dignity, the government of the Church devolves entirely upon the Bishops, in their respective dioceses; and there are many insinuations in this piece, that his Holiness has been very fallible in this respect. In a word, it would not be at all surprisngly to see a reformation here in a short time, and the Portuguese, from a bigotted, ignorant, superstitious people, become an enlightened, philosophical race; for they are not naturally dull, but are lulled to this state of insensibility by mere priestcraft. This would be a very fortunate change for the English nation in general, and the factory here in particular."

Dec. 4. We hear that a Regiment of Highlanders will be speedily raised, for the Service of our N. American Colonies. [We don't want them.]

We learn from Paris, that an ingenious Gentleman in that City, has lately found out a Method of changing Chimnies into Stoves, without losing any Advantage they have, as Chimnies; by which Means, one Fire will heat the different Floors of a House, and even the Apartments of two Houses, separated by a Party-Wall.

The Hereditary Prince of Brunswick, who took leave of the King this day, it is said will go in a few days, on board an English frigate to Mahon, Gibraltar, and some other maritime places, and so to Lisbon: from whence it is said he will return to England.

We hear, that the Port of London, will soon be opened for the free Importation of Tallow and Hides, from Ireland, for a Time limited.

A Foreigner of Distinction, we are told, has already purchased above Three Thousands a Year in this Country, and it is said, that a magnificent Seat is shortly to be erected for his Residence near Richmond. [The Duke Fitz James.]

Dec. 11. On Tuesday there was a meeting of the Virginia Merchants, to draw up a petition to Parliament for some further regulations in their trade.

We are informed that a memorial has been presented to his Majesty, signed by the officers in behalf of themselves and of the soldiers and seamen, who were at the taking of Pondicherry, praying relief from his Majesty for the booty, plunder, &c. stores and ammunition, &c. taken at that capture, with held from them by a certain Company.

According to recent letters from Leghorn, the malecontents of Georgia had at length obtained a peace from the Grand Signior, on the payment of a large fine, and delivering up to the Turkish General all their artillery and warlike stores. Prince Heraclius was said to have fled into Persia. [probably a false report.]

We are informed that the East-India Company's charter, granted in 1758, and all treaties and grants from any of the country powers in India, from the year 1756 to 1766, together with all letters, &c. between the Company and their officers and servants; also the true state of their revenues in Bengal and other parts of the East-Indies, are ordered to be produced. Likewise the whole expence the government have been at in supporting the said Company for the above time, and the latter's petition to his late Majesty in 1757, together with the Attorney and Solicitor General's opinion thereon, are expected to be taken into consideration the 21st of January next.

Although the papers are positive of Mr. Littleton's speedy departure for Lisbon, we are assured by persons well acquainted with the interiors of government, that the fact is absolutely contrary.

They write from Gibraltar, that the Spaniards have for some time been busy in augmenting the fortifications of St. Roch, near that place, two hundred galley slaves having arrived from St. Sebastian's to forward the work.

Dec. 13. It is said, that in Case General Stanwix be drowned (which is now believed) the following Promotions and Alterations will be made, viz. Lieutenant-General Daniel Webb to have the 8th Regiment of Foot, in the Room of the late Lieutenant-General John Stanwix. Major-General William Brown, now upon Half-pay, to have the 48th Regiment of Foot in the Room of Lieutenant-General Webb. Colonel John Mompesson, to be Lieutenant-Governor of the Isle of Wight, and Lord Blayney to be upon the Staff in Ireland, both in the Room of General Stanwix. It is not yet known who will succeed the said General as Member for Appleby, nor will the Writ be issued till after Christmas.

They write from Marseilles, that two Deputies from the Corsican nation had just arrived there, in a French tartane. They are chiefs of the island, and charged with a special commission to the Court of Versailles.

We are credibly informed that a Survey will soon be made of all the forfeited Estates in Scotland, in order to ascertain their Value, on Account of their annual Produce to the Crown having of late Years been much lessened.

We are assured that a rich Baronet, who was married last Week, had the noble Spirit to present his Lady's Fortune to her Sister, consisting of 10,000l.

Dec. 16. They write from Amsterdam, that the Return of Dollars this Year, on account of their West-India Commerce, had fallen short more than half, the French having greatly undermined the Dutch Islands in the Spanish Coast and main Trade.

We are informed, that one Branch of our Manufactures, which the French propose to admit, in Return for the Allowance of Cambricks, is that of Sheffield and Birmingham Cutlery Wares.

They write from Jamaica, that a Danish Vessel, laden with Mules and 50,000 Dollars on board, had been seized by a Spanish Guarda Costa, on the the Spanish Main, and carried into Campeachy.

On Thursday a young Lady, Niece to a Merchant in the City, with an independent Fortune of 9000l. set out on a secret Expedition (supposed for Scotland) with one of her Guardian's Clerk's.

Nov. 21. A premium, it said, will be settled by an august assembly, for those farmers and other dealers, who bring the greatest quantity of wheat and other grain, and the chief necessities of life to any publick market: It having been judged the most effectual method of preventing regrating, engrossing, and forestalling.

Nov. 22. Letters from Lisbon, of the 14th of Oct. say, that the weather there has been so bad, for some time past, that almost all their vines and fruit trees are ruined; and that a worse vintage was hardly ever known.

They write from Barbadoes, that a Proclamation has been published by the French Governor of St. Domingo, inviting the Spaniards and other foreigners, to a free trade at Cape Francois, and other principal ports of Hispaniola.

The territorial Revenue of the East-India Company, we are now pretty well informed, will be appropriated to the uses of the public; these Revenues are estimated at an average at half a million annually.

The prices given for beef and pork by the Commissioners of the Navy, for twenty-one years past, is ordered to be made out.

We hear, that the exportation of wheat, wheat-flour, barley, malt, bread, biscuit, and starch, will be prohibited to be exported till the 14th of September next.

Malt of barley declared for exportation, and shipped before the 24th of this month, it is said, will be permitted to be exported.

It is said, the distillation of spirits from wheat or flour, will be prohibited for the same space as the exportation of wheat.

And that no Distiller is to have in his possession above five bushels of wheat or flour, under the penalty of five pounds for each bushel above that number, properly regulating the case of growers of corn, and millers, who may happen to be distillers.

It is said, that his Majesty in Council will be empowered to enlarge the prohibition of exporting corn till twenty days after the meeting of the next session of Parliament; or in time of vacation of Parliament, to take off the prohibition, if found expedient.

It is also reported, that some regulations will be made in the contracts for yeast between Brewers and Distillers.

It has been remarked, that among the many schemes for reducing the present exorbitant prices of provisions, none have hitherto been proposed to prohibit the exportation of bacon and cheese, when above certain prices. Large quantities of both these commodities, so necessary for the support of the lower class of people, have been annually exported for several years past, which occasioned the very extraordinary rise of these articles, and a greater consumption of flesh provision; so that we doubly feel the want of them.

There is an article of consumption of beef, veal, and hams, which, especially when so much distress is complained of, disgraces humanity. It is no unusual thing in the families of the great, to have soups, in the making of which more flesh is destroyed than would maintain ten times the number of persons who eat of the soup. A gentleman of fortune declares, that at an entertainment for about 12 persons, his butcher's bill amounted to 7 stone in weight, and of that quantity only a fillet of veal remained for his servants. Most horrid custom!

Nov 22. 'Tis said that, among other business this session, the establishment of proper revenues for the Dukes of York, Gloucester, and Cumberland, will be considered; and it is added also that a fund will be provided to build a proper palace for his Majesty.

A 2000l. warrant is issued from the Board of Works, for a new lodge in the wilderness of the Green-park.—As the wall is to be taken down from the Green-park Coffee-house to Constitution hill gate, it will have a double front, and be a most elegant retreat for a Deputy Ranger of the park.

An English Nobleman has at this time ten French Gilders at work in his house, at 1l. 16s. a week, besides lodging and board. The foreman has 2l. 2s. a week, besides his board and lodging; and they use French gold; all the glasses and the rest of the furniture also comes from France.

Letters from Madrid advise, that the King removed on the 11th ult, from the Escorial to his palace in that capital, where the public tranquillity was perfectly re-established, and for the maintenance of which the garrison was reinforced with a Swiss regiment and two others of national troops.

To the Printer of the GENERAL EVENING POST.
SIR,

YOUR correspondents have pointed out to our State Physicians many of those political maladies which interrupt the health of the body, and call for speedy and effectual aid: but there is one evil which has, in part at least, escaped their attention, tho' it is manifestly the foundation and spring of all others; I mean, the general irreligion among us. Take one Sunday with another, perhaps not more than one third of his Majesty's subjects in England attend any place of public worship whatever: a torrent of profaneness marks the Lord's day, and distinguishes it from other days, both amongst the rich and poor; even waggons set out on that day; trades are occupied, and sports pursued. From such a conduct, Sir, what can we expect will be the consequence! Can social and political virtue subsist, if the means of their support, and the most pressing motives for their exercise continue to be thus buried from human view?

Magistracy could not fail of being venerable in the public eye, if its power was faithfully employed to suppress these growing abominations, which are visibly pregnant with the most threatening mischiefs: but do you know, Sir, one Magistrate in an hundred who has discovered proper spirit and resolution to prevent the growing contempt of all authority human and divine?

Reason and religion are certainly the chief glories of a man above a beast: allow me, then, to speak a word on their behalf, through the channel of your useful paper, especially as some of our fellow-subjects read no other bible but a news-paper.

In times past we have been called by the supreme authority, to seek God by Fasting and Prayer in our national distresses; and many are now-most-heartily wishing for such an opportunity of imploring the Divine Mercy, and of endeavouring to bring down the most important blessings upon the heads of their ever-honoured Governors.

I am, Sir, your's, and the public's faithful friend and servant,
X. Y. Z.

WILLIAMSBURG, (in Virginia) January 14.
On Thursday last a new ship from Liverpool, one Goff, master, went ashore on Cape Henry, and bulged. Upon the Vessel's running aground, the Captain immediately got into the boat, with some of his men, to procure assistance from shore; but the waves running so high, overturned the boat, by which means he was drowned and another of the men.

BOSTON, February 29.
We hear from Rutland District, That on the 2d Instant a Number of Dogs were in Chase of a Deer which ran on John Colwell, Esq's House of that Place, and in his Fright fell off said House, and broke his Neck.

HALIFAX, (in Nova Scotia) Jan. 22.
In the severe cold Weather we had here the beginning of this Month. Brandy, Rum, Spirits of Hartshorn, and Sal Volatile, were frozen. A more intense Cold is not remembered here, by the settlers since 1749, nor by the natives for more than 40 years past.

The Barometer during the severity of the Weather stood at 30, 9 10ths and a half.

PHILADELPHIA, February 19.
By Captain Allison, from Antigua, we have Advice that a Snow in six Weeks from London, bound for Turks Island, with Governor Seymour on board, had put in there in Distress, having sprung a Leak at Sea, but was to sail again about the 8th Instant.

NEW-YORK, February 26.
Since the account published in our paper the week before last, from the Antigua Gazette, of the terrible fire that happen'd in Bridge-Town, in Barbados, on the 27th of December last, many letters have arrived from that place, with particular accounts of the misfortune, by which it appears that 60 or 70 dwelling houses, and a greater number of store and other houses were consumed in a part of the town where the principal merchants resided. That at the beginning of the fire it might easily have been stopped, had not the surprise and inactivity of the people let it spread without interruption.—They only endeavour'd to save their goods.—Had no fire engines nor other conveniences for extinguishing fires, not even buckets or pails to be had.—So that scarce an hoghead of water was thrown on the flames, which spread to leeward till there was no more houses left to feed them. Many more houses would have been destroy'd had it not been for the sailors.—Most of the yards were fill'd with lumber, and the stores with provision and other goods, so that the loss could not be estimated.—In short from being one of the most flourishing of the British Islands, it is now almost entirely ruin'd.—They are now convinced of the necessity of building the town in a regular manner, providing themselves with engines, &c. and forming fire companies, plans for which they have wrote for, to Philadelphia New-York, &c. The fire on the 29th January at Boston, destroy'd above 30 houses.

The Sloop Hero, Dudley Saltonstall, Master, from New-London, bound for the Granades, out 19 Days, struck on the Rocks of Barbuda the 1st of January; the Vessel entirely lost, but most of the Cargo saved.

The Snow Swail, Captain Livingston, from Liverpool for this Port, after being 18 Weeks at Sea, is put into Antigua, in a distressed and leaky condition; but was busy fitting, for this Place.

Last Week were brought to Town by one of the Butchers, a pair of very large Oxen, that were fed for three Years past at Lloyd's Neck, on Long-Island, but we hear were bred to the Eastward: One of them is at least 6 Feet high, but the other not so large. They Cost £. 65 the Pair. They were killed Yesterday, but will not be weighed till To-Morrow.

On Tuesday last sailed the Lord Hyde, Packet Boat. Capt. Goddard, with the Mail for Falmouth. By Capt. Campbell in 25 Days from Monto-Christo. we are informed, that he heard nothing there of the Island of Hispaniola's being all ceded to the French, nor of the coming of any unusual Number of Soldiers or Mento that Place from France.

By the Boston Papers, we find the Uneasiness between the Governor and General Assembly, seems still to subsist.

TO BE SOLD,

A Plantation very well improved, containing 312 acres of good land, deem'd to be some of the best in the parts, well watered, timbered and fenced; lying at a place called Squancom, in the township of Shrewsbury, and the county of Monmouth, New-Jersey; the up lands afford good pasture, as well as grain of all sorts peculiar to the climate; the meadows abound with grass of all the kinds for fodder, and in season may be cut thereon enough to winter one hundred head of cattle, whilst more may be improved to the same advantage; (to this may be added the benefit of thousands of acres of land, and meadows for summer range, which it is likely will not be improved in one century.) On it is a saw mill with two saws, seated on one of the best and most plentiful streams in the province, which never fails in the greatest drought, to which may be easily added, a grist or fulling mill, or both, as there is plenty of water, in a growing part of the country, which increases its inhabitants; lands daily rising in value, and huntsman's toil paid with the best of venison, wild turkeys and other game. It is conveniently seated for a shop-keeper, as there is none within 10 miles to supply a thick settled and growing part of the country. On the same is two tenements, besides a mill house for the lawyer, a good large barn, a bearing young orchard yielding 50 barrels of cyder, from the best of grafted fruit, with a variety of other fruit trees. For further particulars enquire of Doctor Richard Stillwell in Middletown, or Obediah Worthley, living on the premises, by whom a good and indisputable title will be given or made to any purchaser.

The remonstrance of us the subscribers, a number of the principal free-holders and inhabitants of the County of West-Chester.

To the consideration of the PUBLIC,

WHEREAS Jacob Dyckman, and others joining with him, did erect over Harlem-river a bridge, at a great charge and expence for the public good and utility, of not only the inhabitants of the Province of New-York, but other governments have received great benefit by the same, as it was done with a view of going over the same free of toll, as they have for several years; Whereas before, all travellers were obliged to pay a toll.

And as the said Jacob Dyckman, and those who joined with him, did erect said new bridge at a very extraordinary charge, over and above what was subscribed to help them, to their great loss in continual repairs: We therefore take this method, briefly to shew their daily suffering condition, by keeping said bridge in repair, for public use, as intended; and as the building of said bridge, was the first public attempt of that nature, under great charge and discouragements, it is requested and hoped, that the assembly-men of the above counties, will be put in mind by their constituents, to use their endeavours for relieving the said Jacob Dyckman and company from, and indemnifying them for their great charge and loss, and assisting and enabling them, by some proper fund to keep the said bridge in repair, as it is of great service to the public.

SUPPLEMENT to the NEW-YORK JOURNAL,
OR GENERAL ADVERTISER,—NUMB. 1260.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1767.

LONDON, October 29.

LAST week arrived from France, at his house in Thrift-street, the Most Noble the Duke de Fitz-Fames, grandson of the famous Duke of Berwick, son of his late Majesty King James the II.

Nov. 29. It is confidently reported, that a noble Duke lately arrived here from a neighbouring kingdom, will, as soon as he is naturalized, be created a Duke of the Realm, and constantly reside here, for which purpose he intends disposing of his estates and immense possessions abroad, in order to transport the value thereof into this kingdom. It is likewise said, that he will be restored to the title and estates of his grandfather in England, Ireland, and Scotland. Some say, that the cause of his leaving F—, was his being disgusted with that court, for having taken his regiment from him, and making no provision for him in lieu thereof.

Dec. 4. The following we are told is the cause of the late great commotions among the Ministry. The last administration, it seems, had intended to have remained without any violent opposition, had their friends remained in post which were yet undismissed. By some accident it was discovered that Lord Edg— was to be removed; the N—, R—, and C— party received this intelligence with great dislike, and sent a message to the M—, that if that Nobleman was removed, they would exert every nerve to oppose him. This declaration of open hostilities could not intimidate the M— from removing Lord Edg—; but it induced him to bring about a reconciliation between the present administration and the Duke of B— and his friends. The powers on both sides are now extremely strong, and the contention may probably be vigorous. Every man indeed, who is not bound by private interest to one of the parties, will sincerely wish that some stability may take place for the sake of his country.

It is remarkable, that the Right Hon. the Earl of Hertford has possessed four of the principal places under the Government in the space of little more than a twelvemonth, viz. those of Ambassador to France, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, Master of the Horse, and at present Lord Chamberlain of the Household.

The last advices from India mention, that Lord Clive would set out for England this month.

A few days since there was a violent quarrel near the Cockpit, Whitehall, in which that divers grave and learned persons, grown gray in the honour of their country, could not be restrained from calling each other names. The cause of the quarrel was a difference of opinion in certain points of law relative to a late embargo.

It is also said, that after the strictest scrutiny, the several resignations that have been lately made are found to be without any reason or cause; and that the great patriot and statesman's schemes have been approved of, and will be carried into execution.

Some letters from Gibraltar mention, that the Dey of Algiers had revoked the orders for all English vessels to depart the harbour within a time limited; but that the ships of no other nation had been suffered to remain.

We are told that when application was lately made to a Nobleman to intercede with a great Personage for the pardon of a celebrated Exile, his Lordship is said to have replied, that the nature of the offence was such as rendered an application in his favour so extremely delicate, and even difficult, that he imagined there was no other hope of obtaining it than that of its proceeding spontaneously from the great Personage himself.

It is remarkable, that there are now living five who are or have been First Lords of the Treasury, and ten who are or have been Secretaries of State, during the same space of time, viz.

Lords of the Treasury (all alive); Duke of Newcastle, Lord Bute, Mr. G. Grenville; Marquis of Rockingham, Duke of Grafton.

Secretaries of State (all alive); Lord Holderness, Lord Chatham, Lord Bute, Mr. G. Grenville, Lord Halifax, Lord Sandwich, Duke of Grafton, Mr. Conway, Duke of Richmond, Lord Shelburne; besides Lord Egremont, who died of a surfeit.

Dec. 6. It is said, that on Monday evening the Duke of B— had a conference with Lord C—, in in Bond-street, which lasted about four hours and a half. At midnight the Duke went to supper at Arthur's, in St. James's-street; where it was declared the negotiation was at an end.

A greater breach than ever, is said to have just happened between two great personages, whose wrangles have for sometime past engrossed the attention of the public.

Pensions on the Irish establishment, are now so frequently offered, that no less than four of two thousand a year each, within these two days were offered to, and refused, by some of the great personages who have lately thrown up their employments.—Poor Old Ireland.

Birmingham, Dec. 8. Last Thursday night Mr. Willington, of Cannock, losing his way near Rudgley, and his mare getting into a bog, he left her, as is supposed, in order to procure assistance to get her out, but unfortunately fell himself into a coal pit, where he was found dead next morning.

Newcastle, Dec. 6. On Saturday night last, a collier was attacked on the Shields road by two footpads, one of them robbed him of five shillings, being the whole and the largest sum he had saved since he drew breath; but upon his representing the distressed situation of his family, the other generously gave him a shilling, as he imagined. After the collier had got home, and told his case to his wife, she asked him if he had saved nothing. Yes, says he, smash their bones, they gave me a shilling again; and then throwing it upon the table, the wife eagerly snatched it up, and was most agreeably surprised to find they had by mistake returned him a guinea instead of a shilling.

Edinburgh, Nov. 12. On Sunday Evening arrived by Express his Majesty's pardon for Mrs. Keith and her son, lately condemned for the murder of Mr. Keith of Northfield at Aberdeen.

STATEN-ISLAND, February 6, 1767.

To the PUBLICK.

THE subscriber intending to remove to New-York, will dispose of the ferry and farm that he now lives on (being on the East end of Staten-Island) by way of publick auction, on Thursday the 19th day of March next: The many conveniences, with the pleasantries of the situation of this place, would take up too much for an advertisement, to point out the whole of them; so shall be content to mention a few of the particulars. In regard to a ferry, it is the best situated on the Island, as the boats can go and come from New-York with most winds, and but one tide to encounter with, which is of great ease to the passengers, and is the reason that it is more frequented than any of the rest of the ferries; it has also a considerable run for carrying passengers to Long-Island, which brings in a handsome yearly income. Most of the shipping that goes out of New-York, anchors just opposite the door, being the anchoring-ground for the watering place, which makes it not only very pleasant, but of considerable advantage to the place, in carrying the passengers and ships crews backwards and forwards to New-York: It also occasions a great run to the house, which is the very sinew of a tavern. The boats that attend this ferry, are often employed to run down to the Hook, with dispatches for vessels that may be there; and the men of war which often lie here, employ them to bring their ship's stores, &c. from New-York. There is an excellent dock for the convenience of the boats; and the best roads on the island are from this place to Amboy, the old and new Blazing-Star, and Elizabeth-Town Point. The ferry and twenty acres of land will be sold by itself: There are also sixty more, with a sufficient quantity of wood land on it, will be sold with the rest or separately, as it may best suit the purchaser. On the twenty acres that belong to the ferry, twenty tons of choice English hay having been cut this season, and as much more may be cut in a short time, with very little expence. There is plenty of pasture, a good barn, stable and two other out houses, all on the above mentioned lot. The situation of the place is extremely pleasant, the house standing on a rising ground, which commands an agreeable prospect of the city of New-York on one side, and the narrows on the other: The garden that is before the door, is laid out in a pretty taste, and has been lately railed in and painted in the handsomest manner. There is great plenty of fish, and game in the proper seasons to be had at this place. It is a delightful situation for a gentleman, and it has all the convenience that is requisite for a ship carpenter: It is also well situated for a farmer, the land being rich, well cleared and drained. The whole farm is under good new fence, and great advantage may be made by gardening, being only nine miles from New-York market.

Whoever purchases the whole, will have a great advantage in saving their pasture, as there is a fine out-let and shore for grazing. Any person inclining to purchase the above premises before the day of sale, may come and view them, and know the conditions of sale, by applying to the Owner,

JOHN WATSON.

At the same time there will be sold, three very good boats, which are now in good repair, and well calculated for the convenience of the ferry. Also, a gentel covered waggon, a curicle, with a good pair of Horses, a fine breeding mare, with other horses, cows, hogs, and many other articles too tedious to mention.

A likely negro fellow, can be well recommended for a coachman and hoffer; and a sober honest young wench, can be recommended as a good cook, to be sold at private sale.

Province of New-Jersey, December 3, 1766.
WHEREAS a Law was passed in New-Jersey the 20th of June 1765, appointing Commissioners to run out straight public Roads through said Province, between New-York and Philadelphia, and empowering them to raise a Sum of Money by a public Lottery, not exceeding £.500, towards defraying the Charge thereof; accordingly a Lottery was thereupon soon after set on Foot, but from the troubled State of Affairs at that Time, occasioned by the Stamp Act, the Proceedings of the said Lottery were delayed; but as it is apprehended that the salutary Purpose might now be effected, the Managers therein appointed have thought fit for that End, to revive the following Scheme of a Lottery, to consist of 2222 Tickets, at 4 Dollars each; 662 of which are to be fortunate as follows:
